The Consecration of St. Jude's Cathedral

The Bishop shall be received at the door of the Church by the Incumbent and other Clergy, the Churchwardens, and others.

A Petition, in the form following or to the like effect, signed by the Incumbent, Churchwardens, and others, shall be read, and presented to the Bishop.

To the Right Reverend David Parsons, Bishop of the Diocese of the Arctic: we, the Incumbent, Churchwardens and other inhabitants of St. Jude's Cathedral do humbly pray you to separate the same from all profane and common uses, and to consecrate the said Church and set it apart for ever for the worship of God, according to the rites and discipline of the Anglican Church of Canada.

The Bishop, accepting the Petition, shall answer and consent, saying:
Brethren, if this be your desire, and the desire of the Parishioners, we will now proceed to the act of Consecration.

Prevent us, O Lord, in all our doings with thy most gracious favour, and further us with thy continual help; that in all our works, begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, and finally by thy mercy obtain everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Bishop, taking his Pastoral Staff, shall knock three times at the door.
Bishop: Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may go into them and give thanks unto the LORD.

Then the Churchwardens shall open wide the doors.

Then the Bishop, standing within the entrance, shall say:
Peace be to this House from God our heavenly Father. Peace be to this House from his Son who is our Peace. Peace be to this House from the Holy Ghost, the Comforter.

Processional Hymn: The Church's One Foundation (#59)

1 The Church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is his new creation
By water and the Word:
From heaven he came and sought her
To be his holy Bride;
With his own Blood he bought her,
And for her life he died.

2 Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation
One Lord, one faith, one birth
One holy Name she blesses,
Partakes one holy Food,
And to one hope she presses
With every grace endued.

3 Though with a scornful wonder
Men see her sore oppressed,
By schisms rent asunder,
By heresies distressed:
Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up, 'How long?'
And soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song.

4 'Mid toil and tribulation
And tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation
Of peace forevermore;
'Til with the vision glorious
Her longing eyes are blessed
And the great church victorious
Shall be the church at rest.

5 Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won:
O happy ones and holy!
Lord, give us grace that we,
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with thee.

The Bishop shall have the necessary legal documents presented to him, which he shall lay on the holy Table; and then, standing and turning to the Congregation, he shall say to them as follows:

Dearly beloved in the Lord, forasmuch as devout and holy men, as well under the Law as under the Gospel, moved either by the secret inspiration of the blessed Spirit, or by express command of God, or by their own reason and sense of order and decency, have erected houses for the public worship of God, and have separated them from all profane and common uses, in order to fill men's minds with greater reverence for his glorious majesty, and affect their hearts with more devotion and humility in his service; which pious works our heavenly Father hath vouchsafed to approve and accept: Let us not doubt but he will also graciously approve this our godly purpose of setting apart this place in solemn manner to religious worship; and let us faithfully and devoutly beg his blessing on this our undertaking, keeping silence for a space.

Bishop: Let us pray.
O Lord, hear our prayer;
People: And let our cry come unto thee.
Bishop: O Eternal God, mighty in power, of majesty incomprehensible, whom the heaven of heavens cannot contain, much less the walls of temples made with hands; and who yet hast been graciously pleased to promise thy especial presence in whatsoever place even two or three of thy faithful servants shall assemble in thy Name, to offer up their supplications and their praises to thee: Vouchsafe, O Lord, to be present with us, who are now gathered together to consecrate this place,

The Bishop, sitting in his Chair, shall then sign, and cause to be read publicly, the Sentence of Consecration given under his hand and seal.

SENTENCE OF CONSECRATION

In the Name of God. Amen.
Whereas a Church has been erected at Iqaluit within our Diocese and jurisdiction; and whereas the said building is now completed and furnished with all things requisite for the due performance of public worship, and is free from all legal liability for debt, and is now ready for Consecration; and whereas a Petition has been presented to us by the Incumbent and the Wardens, praying that we would be pleased to consecrate the said building: Now therefore, we, David Wayne Parsons, by Divine permission Bishop of the Arctic, do by virtue of the authority ordinary and episcopal to us committed, consecrate the said building, and do set it apart from all profane and common uses, and do dedicate the same to Almighty God for the ministration of his holy Word and Sacraments, and for public worship, according to the rites and ceremonies of the Anglican Church of Canada, by the name of Saint Jude's Cathedral. And we do pronounce, decree, and declare that the said Church shall remain so consecrated, set apart, and dedicated for ever; In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

WITNESS our hand and seal, this first day of October in the year of our Lord 2017, and in the sixth year of our Consecration.

The Bishop standing, and turning to the people, shall say:
Grant that this whole place which is here dedicated to thee by our office and ministry may also be hallowed by the sanctifying power of thy Holy Spirit, and so for ever continue, through thy mercy, O blessed Lord God, who dost live and govern all things, world without end. Amen.

And now, by virtue of the sacred office committed to us in the Church, I do declare to be consecrated and set apart from all profane and common uses this House of God under the Name and Title of Saint Jude's Cathedral; In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Bishop: Let us pray.

O most glorious God, whom the heaven of heavens cannot contain: Graciously accept the dedication of this place to thy service; and grant that all who shall call upon thee here, may worship thee in spirit and in truth, and may in their lives show forth thy praise; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

The Proclamation of the Word (please be seated)

Old Testament Reading: 1 Kings 8:22-23, 27-30

Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven, and said, "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven above or on earth beneath, keeping covenant and showing steadfast love to your servants who walk before you with all their heart." ...

"But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the highest heaven cannot contain you; how much less this house that I have built! Yet have regard to the prayer of your servant and to his plea, O LORD my God, listening to the cry and to the prayer that your servant prays before you this day, that your eyes may be open night and day toward this house, the place of which you have said, 'My name shall be there,' that you may listen to the prayer that your servant offers toward this place. And listen to the plea of your servant and of your people Israel, when they pray toward this place. And listen in heaven your dwelling place, and when you hear, forgive."

Gradual Hymn: Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah (#30)

1 Guide me, O thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty;
Hold me with thy powerful hand:
Bread of heaven, bread of heaven,
Feed me 'til I want no more;
Feed me 'til I want no more.

2 Open now the crystal fountain,
Whence the healing stream doth flow;
Let the fiery cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through
Strong Deliverer, Strong Deliverer
Be thou still my strength and shield;
Be thou still my strength and shield.

3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Bear me through the swelling current,
Land me safe on Canaan's side:
Songs of praises, songs of praises
I will ever give to thee;
I will ever give to thee.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 7:13-14, 24-25

"Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few." ... "Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock."

Sermon - The Right Reverend William Love, Bishop of Albany

Hymn: Praise to the Lord, the Almighty (#86)

1 Praise to the Lord,
The Almighty, the King of creation;
O my soul, praise him,
For he is thy health and salvation:
All ye who hear, now to his temple draw near,
Joining in glad adoration.

2 Praise to the Lord,
Who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth,
Shelters thee under his wings,
Yea, so gently sustaineth:
Hast thou not seen how thy entreaties have been Granted in what he ordaineth?

3 Praise to the Lord,
Who doth prosper thy work, and defend thee;
Surely his goodness
And mercy here daily attend thee:
Ponder anew what the Almighty can do,
If with his love he befriend thee.

4 Praise to the Lord,
Who, when tempests their warfare are waging,
Who, when the elements
Madly around thee are raging,
Biddeth them cease, turneth their fury to peace,
Whirlwinds and waters assuaging.

5 Praise to the Lord,
Who, when darkness of sin is abounding,
Who, when the godless do triumph,
All virtue confounding,
Sheddeth his light, chaseth the horrors of night,
Saints with his mercy surrounding.

6 Praise to the Lord,
O let all that is in me adore him!
All that hath life and breath
Come now with praises before him!
Let the Amen sound from his people again:
Gladly for aye we adore him.

The Nicene Creed

Bishop: Let us confess our faith, as we say,

All: We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Leader: Let us offer our prayers to the source of all love and all life, saying, "Lord, hear our prayer."

Confession and Absolution
Bishop: Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; he welcomes sinners and invites them to his table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.
Silence is kept.

Bishop: Most merciful God,
All: we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.
Bishop: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace
Bishop: The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People: And also with you.
The members of the community, ministers and people, may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Offertory Hymn: Be Thou My Vision (#222)
1 Be thou my Vision, O Lord of my heart;
Naught be all else to me, save that thou art,
Thou my best thought, by day or by night,
Waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.

2 Be thou my Wisdom, thou my true Word:
I ever with thee, thou with me, Lord;
Thou my great Father, I thy true son;
Thou in me dwelling, and I with thee one.

3 Be thou my battle-shield, sword for the fight;
Be thou my dignity, thou my delight,
Thou my soul's shelter, thou my high tower:
Raise thou me heavenward, O Power of my power.

4 Riches I heed not, nor man's empty praise,
Thou mine inheritance, now and always:
Thou and thou only, first in my heart,
High King of heaven, my treasure thou art.

5 High King of heaven, after victory won,
May I reach heaven's joys, O bright heaven's Sun
Heart of my own heart, whatever befall,
Still be my Vision, O Ruler of all.

Archbishop: Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth; heaven itself cannot contain you, but you dwell with lowly people and humble hearts. Through your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, you have called us to be your holy temple, living stones, raised to the glory of your service, built upon Christ, the foundation of our faith. Now in this house we join our voices, with all your people of every time and place, to proclaim the glory of your name.

People: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Archbishop: We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation; in calling Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life. On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, Father, according to his command,

People: we remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection, we await his coming in glory;

Archbishop: and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, to you, Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new, and bring us to that city of light where you dwell with all your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation; by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer
Archbishop: And now, as our Saviour Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
People: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread
The archbishop breaks the consecrated bread for distribution and says:
Archbishop: From our birth you have sustained us,
People: Let our mouth be full of your praise and your glory all the day long.

God of glory, you have made us citizens of your eternal city, and fed us at the table of life. May we worship you in our lives, and proclaim your holy will in all we do. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Doxology

Bishop: Glory to God,

People: whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Presentations and Comments - Bishop David Parsons

Blessing

Bishop: Blessed be thy Name, O Lord God, for that it pleaseth thee to have thy habitation among the sons of men, and to dwell in the midst of the assembly of the saints upon earth: Bless, we beseech thee, the service of this day, and grant that in this place, now set apart to thy glory, thy holy Name may be worshipped in truth and purity to all generations; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bishop: You are the people of God, a holy nation, a royal priesthood, the temple of God's presence. May God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, bless you in this calling, now and always. Amen.

Closing Hymn: Stand Up, Stand Up, For Jesus (#16)

1 Stand up, stand up, for Jesus,
Ye soldiers of the Cross;
Lift high his royal banner,
It must not suffer loss:
From victory unto victory
His army he shall lead;
'Til every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up, stand up, for Jesus;
The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict
In this his glorious day:
Ye that are men, now serve him
Against unnumbered foes;
Let courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up, stand up, for Jesus;
Stand in his strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you,
Ye dare not trust your own:
Put on the gospel armour,
And watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.

4 Stand up, stand up, for Jesus;
The strife will not be long;
This day the noise of battle,
The next the victor's song:
To him that overcometh
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of glory
Shall reign eternally.
